

Access Information

The Mirrorbox at Jubilee Square, Brighton

This guide focuses specifically on accessing Jubilee Square to visit the Mirrorbox. On the website is further access information for the Mirrorbox sculpture which is also available as a PDF.

You can view Jubilee Square on Google Maps Street View here.

If you have access needs not covered in this information, please get in contact message@iwouldbehereifcould.com

Where is the Mirrorbox?

The Mirrorbox will be installed in the centre of Jubilee Square.

If it is very windy, The Mirrorbox will be closer to the Jubilee Library.

Visible signs, barriers and our friendly team will indicate the exact location on the day.

Address:

Jubilee Square, Jubilee Street

Brighton BN1 1GE

Jubilee Square is in the North Laine Bazaar.

When can I visit?

Saturday 17th October: 11am – 4pm

Sunday 18th October: 11am – 4pm

Physical Access

Jubilee Square is a level paved and tarmac surface.

There is step-free drop kerb access available from all parking and transport links.

Temperature

Jubilee Square is an uncovered outdoor venue. Wear appropriate clothing for the weather.

Accessible toilets

There are toilets in the Jubilee Library, on the ground floor. The Library is located on Jubilee Square.

These include all gender toilets, accessible toilets and baby and adult changing facilities. There is level access to the toilets and walkways have railings. The accessible toilet doors open inwards.

You can take a virtual tour of the Library here.

Lighting and noise

Jubilee Square is an uncovered outdoor venue with natural light during daytime hours. It has buildings on three sides.

It is a public space in the city centre and may become busy during the day. The Square is pedestrianised.

Quiet spaces can be found inside the Jubilee Library.

Food and water

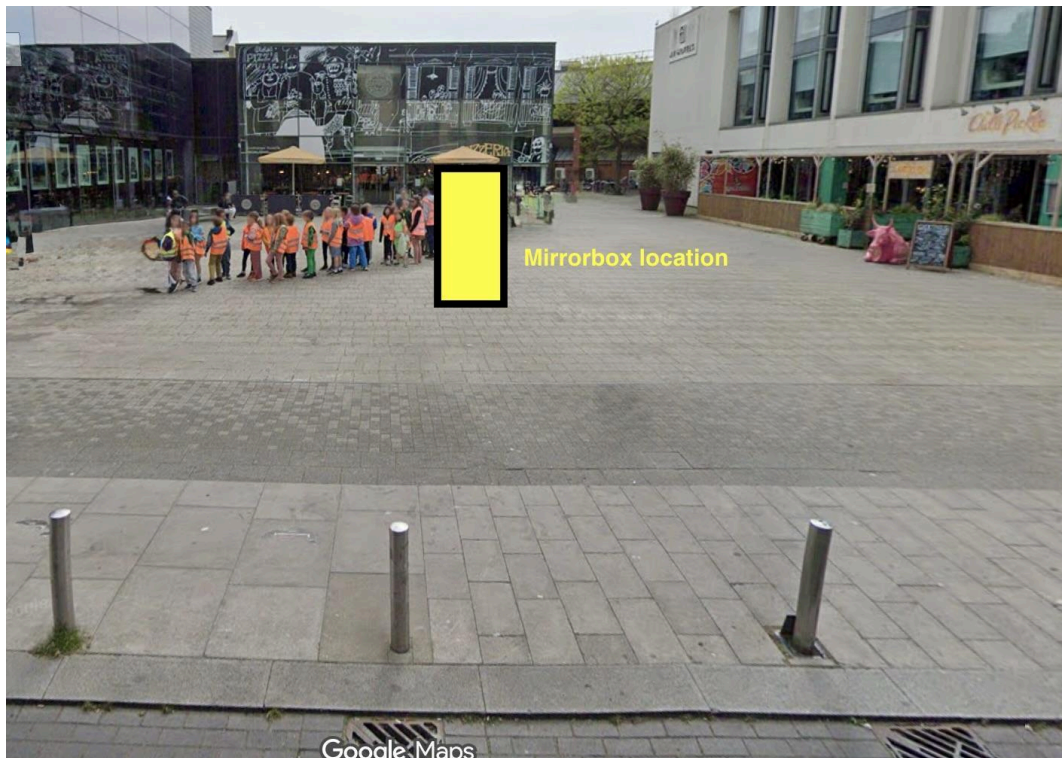

- There is a café inside Jubilee Library
- There is a water fountain in the Square
- There is a Tesco on Jubilee Street
- There are many cafés and restaurants nearby

Emergencies

- In case of an emergency, our team or the emergency services will tell you what to do.

Finding the Mirrorbox

We plan for the Mirrorbox to be in the centre of the square. If it is very windy, it will be closer to the Library.

The image shows Jubilee Square with a yellow rectangle and label that shows where we plan to put the Mirrorbox.

Signage

We will display signs to show you where to wait to access the Mirrorbox.

Seating and rest

There will be 3 black chairs provided by the team as well as a perching stool for inside The Mirrorbox. There are benches around the Square.

The Mirrorbox experience

Detailed access information for the Mirrorbox sculpture is on our project website here. You can also request this as a PDF

Waiting and queueing

- The Mirrorbox is intended to be visited one person at a time. If you need assistance or require someone in the Mirrorbox with you please let the team know
- The audio message inside the Mirrorbox is 2.35 minutes long.
- Queues are to be expected when visiting the Mirrorbox, particularly at busy times so please plan accordingly.
- If you need to sit while waiting, please ask a member of the Mirrorbox team. You do not need to explain why you need to sit.

Mirrorbox Staff and support

There will be three members of the Mirrorbox team available on-site to support you: Chris, Jo and Jesse. Please let them know if you need any help or if there is anything you are concerned about.

Jo Latham

Chris Heigham

Jesse Leroy Smith

They will be easy to identify by their purple caps, purple t-shirts with 'Mirrorbox' printed in white. If it is cold they will wear purple caps and a Mirrorbox pin badge (t-shirts are a bit cold!)

The team will be supported by volunteers. They will wear a purple lanyard, purple cap and Mirrorbox pin badge.

If you cannot enter the Mirrorbox

If you are unable to enter the Mirrorbox, you can still experience the message. A large-print transcript will be available, along with a QR code linking to the audio.

Statement of intent

We aim to make the Mirrorbox as accessible and inclusive as possible. We understand that access is individual and are open to adjusting accordingly. With each visit, we will continue to develop and refine the accessibility of The Mirrorbox.
